

Who We Are

Founded in 1977, as a non-profit educational organization, the Society strives to perform outreach and enhance archival professionalism throughout Mississippi.

SMA membership is open to any person or organization interested in supporting the objectives of the Society. The Society membership year runs from January to December.

Preserving Our Heritage

Mission

- Promote effective communication among archivists and interested persons in allied professions
- Encourage the preservation and the conservation of archival and manuscript materials in the state
- Provide educational opportunities for persons responsible for the preservation and administration of records
- Assist citizens, professional organizations, educational institutions, and cultural groups in the preservation and use of our recorded heritage

The Primary Source

The Primary Source is the official journal of the Society of Mississippi Archivists. It contains timely articles on archives, record management and conservation, listings of accessions at archival repositories and national and regional archival news. The Primary Source can be accessed online, free of charge, on the SMA website.

Membership Benefits of SMA

SMA Annual Meeting

SMA holds an annual meeting every April. Topics addressed in the past include manuscript and congressional papers, preservation, digitization, research, grants, and much more!

Virtual Table Talks

Share your knowledge on the topic of your choice, or tune in to hear other archivists talk about a variety of topics at our virtual table talks.

Quarterly Newsletter

Learn more about your colleagues and various archival events going on in your state and beyond through our digital newsletter.

SMA Listserv

Members have the opportunity to access the group listserv with subscribers from the across the state via our Google Group.

Southeastern Archives Association

Society of Mississippi Archivists members are also members of the region's professional organization, Southeastern Archivists Association. SEAA offers members of SMA a chance to confer with archivists from across the Southeast.
